FOREWORD

To record and portray the manifold aspects of school life is the primary purpose of a year book. It is the sincere wish of the entire staff that the Medley of 1936 may serve as a pleasant reminder of the friendships and activities of Danville High School.

ALLAN THORNTON, Editor

PAUL ZIMMERMAN, Circulation Manager

DEDICATION

To Mr. Finley H. Hogbin, who, through his cheerful and bountiful giving of time and talent, has merited the admiration and gratitude of co-workers and students, we, the staff of 1936, respectfully dedicate this Medley.

MISS SANDESON

Friend, adviser, confidant—Miss Sandeson is all of these. Appreciating the many needs of the members of the Senior Class, her earnest desire is to be of service to them. The graduates of 1936 will remember with deepest respect their counselor.

High Lights of Senior Year

Motto of 1936

"No Victory Without Effort."
"Nulla palma sine pulvere" refers to the days of the Roman Chariot races when the winner was awarded the palm of victory. A great deal of dust always accompanied these races and no palm could be won without it. To the Senior of 1936 it means that true victory will come only after a serious effort has been made. He is going forth into the world to gain a victory.

Class Day

Class day is a day of rest and play for Seniors. It is a time to see and talk to the many teachers who have helped them and befriended them. Seniors are seen sitting back, talking, taking life easy, laughing gayly—and yet, underneath their frivolity is a serious note, for they are about to leave the halls of their dear high school. In the assembly program this year, on that day of days for Seniors, the class will and prophecy were read. A skit was wound around "Men, Women and Old Master Goat." Senior President Mayer Singerman gave the class mascot to Junior President Bill Swisher. This day will long be remembered by the graduating class.

Medleys Are Out

Ever since subscriptions for the Medley were taken in the assembly, December 10, 1935, students have been continually inquiring as to when Medleys would come out. Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors alike were anxiously awaiting the important date. At last the great day arrived and throngs of excited students crowded around assigned rooms to receive their year books. The most fun of all was getting signatures and having friends write notes concerning the activities in which these friendships were formed. Soon everyone felt at peace with the world and a happy Medley Staff felt their work well done.

Graduation

The most important date in the life of a Senior is Commencement night. It is the crowning point of his high school career. This year, an effort was made to give outsiders a glimpse into the various departments of Danville High School. Just what is taught in each department was portrayed in an interesting fashion by leading members of the Class of 1936. A picture of the modern high school curriculum was presented and it left a lasting impression on the minds of the many friends and relatives at the exercises for the Seniors of 1936.

MR. C. E. VANCE, M.A.
University of Illinois
Superintendent of Schools

As superintendent of the Danville City Schools, Mr. Vance is interested in the progress and welfare of every student in the grade schools and Danville High School. He also eagerly watches the accomplishments of the former students of Danville Schools.

Mr. Vance is one of the foremost leaders in the field of education in the state of Illinois, in which he is continually striving for the betterment of the public school system and youth welfare.

MR. RUSSELL M. DUFFIN, M.A.
University of Illinois
Principal

MR. DUFFIN

Mr. Duffin, though still in his prime as principal, has guided the affairs of the school with a firm but charitable hand. He has displayed, in his service for students and faculty alike, impartial judgment, generosity and good will. He has entered whole-heartedly into the activities of the school and has strived in every way possible to make school life both pleasant and profitable.

MR. DONALD SCHOOLCRAFT, M.A.

Wabash College
University of Illinois

MR. SCHOOLCRAFT

Mr. Schoolcraft has a certain dignity along with enthusiasm that is the envy of every student in Danville High School. He is that rare kind of an individual who adapts himself to every occasion. As adviser of the Booster Club, he inspires every member to back the team to the greatest extent. As an administrative assistant, he is firm, yet patient, and kind.

MR. BATES

Mr. Bates merits the admiration, appreciation and respect of the entire school. He is admired for his intelligent leadership; he is appreciated because he is truly a servant of the school, and he is respected because of his careful consideration of student problems. As adviser of the Medley, he is known as a real friend and leader.

MR. EVERETT A. BATES, M.A.

Iowa State Teachers' College
University of Iowa

Miss Payne
May 27, 1936

MISS PAYNE

Every girl in Danville High School has a genuine friend in the person of Miss Payne. She is Dean of Girls and performs her duties in this capacity with great skill. She is the chief adviser of Girls' Club and is a wonderful example of Girls' Club ideals. As head of the mathematics department she meets both boys and girls as a friend as well as instructor.

MISS GERTRUDE PAYNE, M.A.

University of Chicago
University of Wisconsin

MR. MERRILL FAULK, M.A.

University of Illinois
Northwestern University

MR. FAULK

As a teacher, Mr. Faulk is brilliant, as an administrative assistant, he is kind, as adviser of the Maroon and White, he is capable, and as a friend, he is loyal. He is a true gentleman with an enjoyable sense of humor, which shows in every phase of his work.

Board of Education

Left to right—George Goulding; Archie Bailey; Dr. O. H. Crist; Victor L. Yeomans, President; Mrs. Johnson, Secretary; Kenneth Holmes; Harvey Pearson; Harry Payne.

The Board of Education is made up of true citizens of Danville. These men, who so willingly serve without compensation, are chosen by the people of this city, two members being elected each April to serve for a period of three years.

The members are organized into seven committees, namely, the financial, building and grounds, supplies, textbooks, athletics, rules and regulations, and teachers.

Regular meetings are held the second Tuesday in each month in the Board Room of the High School building, with President Victor L. Yeomans presiding.

IN MEMORIAM

Life lost in youth is sorrow
Of hours of happiness flown.
Yet there is something gained in
The cares they shall not be shown.

Each had a fountain of gladness,
A bubbling heart bringing joy.
Not disenchanted and dreary,
They glanced at life as a toy.

Plaything not yet without glitter
Withdrawn from its shelf too soon,
Leaves still delightful memoirs
That refresh with a soothing boon.

BETSY PLATT '36.

ALEX FREELAND

Alex Freeland was a member of the Senior Class of 1935 at the time of his death, May 15, 1935. He was born July 28, 1917. He attended Garfield grade school.

DOUGLAS HARPER

Douglas Harper had a Junior Class rating when he was drowned. He was born January 7, 1918. He attended Cannon grade school. He died September 16, 1935.

EILEEN SNIDER

Eileen Snider, at the time of her death, was a Sophomore in Danville High School. She was born June 25, 1920 and attended Washington school. She died March 29, 1936.

THEODORE HENRY RYS

Theodore Henry Rys was a first semester Senior at the time of his death, May 10, 1936. He was born August 24, 1918 and attended Washington School.

The 1936 May Fete presented a model of Olympic games in the "Olympiad". The prologue was an ancient Grecian dance. Then came the long awaited procession and the crowning of Miss Frances Ealy, May Queen of D.H.S., by Miss Louise Lindley, 1934 Queen. The spectacular Parade of Nations and varied athletic competition followed. The closing of the "Olympiad" marked another historic day in the reign of Danville High School Queens.

ORGANIZATIONS

DRAMATIC CLUB OFFICERS

Front row—Bernice Mayer, secretary; Hilda Mae Livengood, president; Marjorie Barton, play manager.

Among the students of Danville High School are those who desire to know the technicalities connected with the production of plays. The club which has been organized with the idea of helping students realize at least a part of their ambition is the Dramatic Club, known also as the D.H.S. Players.

At the beginning of each semester try-outs are held, and only those individuals showing the best dramatic ability are admitted. The members are divided into several groups, each with a chairman. These groups present one-act plays during the year. In this way Miss Mary Miller, adviser for the club, is able to find her most talented actors.

Each year a play is produced by the members, chosen by a faculty committee. A three-act comedy, the 'Gypsy Trail', by Robert Housum, was produced February twentieth and twenty-first by two superb casts. This is the first time a double cast plan has been put into effect and it proved most successful. The proceeds from the plays are used to purchase gifts for the school.

For diversion, the Club finds gaiety in tea dances, spring picnics, and breakfast dances. An alumni breakfast dance was held at Christmas time for all present and past members of Dramatic Club. At the spring picnic the newly elected members of National Thespian were announced. This is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a member of the Dramatic Club.

CLUB

"TOO MANY SWEETHEARTS"

GIRL RESERVE OFFICERS

The high light of the Girl Reserve school year was the annual dance and stunt show held in April and open to the public. The proceeds, heretofore, have been used to send delegates to a conference held at Peoria, but due to the fact that no conference convened this year, the money was deposited in the treasury awaiting various demands of the following year.

In addition to the Girl Reserve Hi-Y Football Champion Dance in November and the leap year Dance in January, the Girl Reserves entertained at a Valentine Tea and the annual Mother and Daughter Tea in May honoring the Senior members and their mothers.

Uppermost in its achievements throughout the year, this organization has kept in mind the three sides of the Girl Reserve Triangle, namely, Body, Mind, and Spirit.

All boys enjoying clean sports, scholarship, and entertainment are eligible to be members of the Hi-Y Club, an active branch of the Y.M.C.A.

The club's purpose is to create and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character.

In social activities the boys frequently vary their events by meeting with the Girl Reserves, their sister organization affiliated with the Y.W.C.A. The climax of the year's activity is always the Mother and Son banquet. At the annual steak fry the work of the year is brought to a close.

HI-Y OFFICERS

Top row—Paul Wakely, Bill Tanner, Dan Lewis, Morris Dodd.

Bottom row—Bill Brummett, Allan Thornton, John Bullington, Ed Telling.

PHYLLIS WHEATLEY

Della Smith, absent.*

The Phyllis Wheatley girls prove the importance of friendliness and cooperation in a successful group which is a branch of the Girl Reserves and Y.W.C.A. organizations.

Each meeting of the year consisted of a different type of program, thus avoiding monotonous and uninteresting meetings. In addition to the social side of the club, business meetings were held in order to discuss the formal and important matters relative to their club.

Each year these girls endeavor to promote friendliness and service to others. They are assisted in every manner by the two advisers, Miss Thompson and Miss Shutts.

WORTH WHILE WRITERS

Front row—Vera Harrington, Carolyn Craig, Mary Margaret Bills, Ruth Ellen Herren, Lethamae Farmer, Jane Gardner, Eleanor Brown, Maxine Hadley.

Back row—Ingrid Karlson, Betty Keener, June Cullum, Carolyn Kilgore, Miss Mildred Boyer, adviser; Arliegh Lee, Lauetta Mae Coyne, Jackie Crist, Ruby Carter, Dorothy Frye.

For students who desire to learn more about writing, the Worth While Writers' Club is ready to aid them with the motto, "We Will Work." The meetings are held the first Tuesday of each month, at which time a program is presented, displaying the talent of the club.

At the beginning of each semester try-outs are held for admittance to the club. A writing, accepted by the club critic, admits a student to membership.

In the spring a picnic is held, and at this event the officers for the succeeding year are elected and installed.

The club has as its adviser, Miss Mildred Boyer. The officers include president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and club critic. These positions were filled by Lethamae Farmer, Ruth Ellen Herren, Carolyn Craig, Mary Margaret Bills, and Thelma Lager.

"B" NATURAL CLUB

An organization that has a short past but a promising future is the B Natural Club, honorary musical society. With the motto, "Never B-sharp; Never B-flat; Always B-Natural", the girls learn how to develop poise and to appreciate music of famous composers. The club is divided into several groups and these groups present beneficial programs at each meeting.

Only those girls who have completed four semesters of Glee Club or two semesters of Glee Club and two semesters of harmony or music appreciation are eligible for membership.

INTERCLASS DEBATE

This year Wranglers' Club has celebrated its twenty-fifth year in D.H.S. with a present membership of 50 under the guidance of its co-advisers, Mr. R. D. Purkey and Miss Ruth Sandeson.

During this past school year the club staged three assembly programs, one in the fall and two in the spring. The fall entertainment was at Thanksgiving time commemorating the 100th anniversary of the birth of Mark Twain; the first spring assembly program was the occasion for the finals in interclass debating and the second program marked the appearance of D.H.S. Big 12 Spring Meet Literary Representatives.

WRANGLERS CLUB

BIG 12 LITERARY CONTESTANTS

Contestants who went to Pekin on May 2 for the Big 12 Meet this year were: Reid Hodge (Extemporaneous Speaking); Jack Randolph (Oratorical Declamation); Paul Zimmerman (Original Oratory); Martha Ann McEvoy (Dramatic Reading); Honore Ronan (Humorous Reading); Iantha Vollman (Interpretative Reading). A new Big 12 entry introduced this year was Varsity Debating. D.H.S. squad consisted of Jane Putnam, Paul Zimmerman, Reid Hodge and Fred Tracy.

PHOTOGRAPHERS CLUB

At meetings of the Photographers' Club different types of photography are discussed and pictures are taken so the results can be criticized. During the past semester this club has been responsible for the motion pictures enjoyed by so many students.

The staff, under the direction of Mr. Hogbin, has been taking pictures around school and in classes in order to portray the school as it really is.

Room 332, where Medley group pictures are taken, has been greatly improved by additional background and floodlights. In glancing through the Medley one can readily see that these efforts were successful.

JUNIOR HI-Y OFFICERS

Under the capable direction of Mr. Sam Laker and club president, Bob Walters, the Junior Hi-Y Club has gained in popularity since its inauguration two years ago. The under classmen will be advanced to the Senior Club next fall.

Left to right—Max Sperling, Howard Marshall, Bob Crabtree.

ART CLUB

First row—Wilbur Harrison, Kenneth Gray, John Rains, Ralph Pate.
Second row—Sarah Anne Franz, Helene Bernsohn, Virginia Stuebe, Ruth Ellen Herron, Miss Keve, adviser; Frank Phillips, Dorothy Spiering.
Back row—Maxine Prouty, Alice Purinton, Norma Staggs, Mary Jean Purinton, Elsie Henson, Minnetta Phelps, Frances Willett, Jeannette Le Seure, Muriel Beatty, Betty Lou Nigren, Alice Skelton, Mary Edith Jackiway, Marjory Free, Jane Bremer, Dorothy Gunn, Kathryn Ibbotson, Alice Lemon, Artice Martin, Lorene Faulk, Esther Lumbrick, Mary Ann Spoden, Betty Fitzgerald.

Every two weeks the Art Club meets in Room 307 for an informal discussion of art, under the leadership of Miss Florence Keve. In the past years only students talented in art and those taking it as a part of their school curriculum belonged to the club. This year any student interested in art was eligible for membership.

The programs have been chosen to stimulate a more thorough appreciation of art and beauty. Emphasis is placed upon originality and initiative instead of technical problems.

When posters are needed for advertising school functions, some of the talented members of the Art Club as well as art students, are responsible for them.

Social activities, in the form of a Valentine's Party and Christmas Dance, were enjoyed by members of the club. A farewell picnic in June, before the summer vacation, brought the club's activities to a close.

GIRLS' CLUB OFFICERS

Top row—Hazel Johnson, Ruth Marie Cheney.*

Mrs. F. P. Meeks, founder of the Girls' Club, was present at its first meeting of the year. Each cabinet member personally escorted a new girl into the club, thus making her feel the spirit of friendship which the club extends.

This year the club sponsored its thirty-fourth annual Christmas Party for needy grade school children, treating each girl and boy with a present and refreshments. The two yearly all-school parties proved unusually successful.

A formal dinner for all club members was held in place of the usual banquet for cabinet members only. Mrs. C. F. Baum, the guest speaker, reviewed the book "Larry", the story of a college boy.

Since 1902 this rapidly growing club has been working for the interest of all high school girls, building character and spreading friendship and service.

Back row—Alice Mae Davis, Miss Gertrude Payne, adviser; Juanita Warfield.

Back row—Miss Louise Taylor, Honore Ronan, Dorothy Travis, Martha Ann McEvoy, Daisy Clark, Miss Dorothy Livesey.
Front row—Martha Collings, Muriel Lindley, Ellen Kinningham, Lethamae Farmer, Bernice Mayer.

GIRLS' CLUB COMMITTEES

The five committees of Girls' Club are responsible for carrying on the activities of this, the school's largest club.

The Membership committee conducts campaigns and initiation for new members each semester, while the Financial committee is kept busy selling "mums" at Thanksgiving and refreshments at games and parties.

The Social committee sees that the dancing, refreshments and entertainment are enjoyed by all at the two annual all-school parties. The work for the Christmas Party given for poor children yearly is undertaken by the Social Service Committee. The Publicity Committee is kept busy advertising the club's activities and meetings.

The work of these various committees weaves into the history of the club the ideals of service, fellowship and loyalty.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Music Department of Danville High School is divided into several organizations entirely devoted to music. The Girls' Glee Club, one of these organizations, is under the directorship of Miss Pansy Legg.

The girls are grouped into second, fourth and sixth hour classes. The sixth hour class is the select group and from this class the annual operetta receives most of its talent. The Girls' Glee Club chorus, which represents D.H.S. in the Big Twelve Festival, is also chosen from this group of girls.

The girls are taught how to appreciate good music, develop poise, and to understand some of the technicalities involved in the field of music.

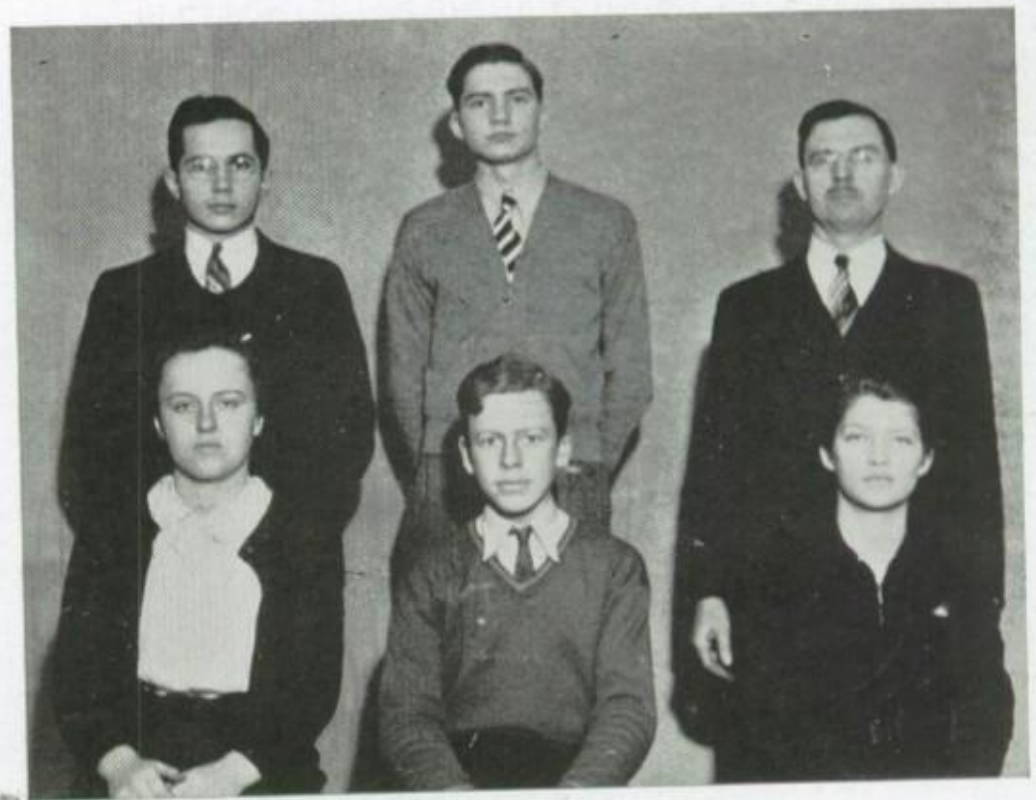

SCIENCE CLUB OFFICERS

Topics such as glass and electricity have afforded material for discussion in the bi-monthly meeting.

Mr. Rumbaugh, a member of the police department, presented the importance of radio in police work.

At the Chuckles Candy Factory the students followed the process of candy manufacturing. The C. & E. I. shops furnished valuable information to those interested in locomotive repair work. Through these experiences the Science Club promotes interest in the commercial and educational fields of science.

Back row—June Knight, Miss Mildred Glindmeier, Miss Potter, Miss Boger, Miss Dolpha Parker.

All girls who have studied one of the domestic arts are automatically members of the Home Economics Club. In this club, which is under the capable direction of Misses Parker, Potter, Boger, and Glindmeier, girls are offered cultural and educational advantages besides practical and pleasurable activities.

Among the social activities of the year were the Sweetheart Dance and a Fashion Show. The club's activities were closed with a pantomime of social amenities.

METRONOME OFFICERS

Back row—Hazel Johnson, Thelma Lager.*

The orchestra chose METRONOME for its club name, taking its motto, "We set the pace", from the time-keeping device used by musicians. This semester the orchestral group has been divided into two parts: the regular orchestra composed of the advanced musicians; and the stringed ensemble, a beginners' class, in which problems of music are worked out.

Social diversion in the form of an annual spring picnic completes the activities of the year.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scouts have made much progress the past year under the supervision of Miss Sara Belton and Miss Margaret Leins. The officers for this year are: Chairman of the Court of Honor, Betty Randolph; Program Chairman, Constance Shell; Publicity Chairman, Bernice Azoff; Scribe, Betsy Platt.

This organization is noted for its social service work. At Christmas time the girls filled a basket for a needy family and sang carols to shut-ins. Children from the Orphans' Home enjoyed a marionette show designed and presented by the Scouts.

To develop a quality of usefulness, courses in first aid and home management were offered to the girls during the month of March.

Through its numerous activities this growing organization is successfully taking its place in the extra-curricular life of D.H.S.

Front row—Margaret Johnson, Lorene Faulk, Bernice Azoff, Dorothy Timmons, Thelma Lager, Jule Platt, Anna Jane Rumbaugh, Adeline Isaacson, Miss Leins, adviser.

Second row—Betty Keener, Dorothy Garner, Florence Brasel, Constance Shell, Frances Asher, Betty Randolph, Margaret Siebert, Margaret Ford, Mary E. Myers.

Top row—Miss Mary Miller, Mary McCann, John Wakeley, Carol Barrick, Ross Fairchild, Melma Jean Ewert, Frank Caughron, Mary Elizabeth Telling.

The Thespian Society, founded in 1929, has remained the supreme goal sought by all young actors and actresses but reached by only a selected few. Miss Mary Miller, the dramatic coach, and faculty committee, selects the initiates according to their ability as portrayed in club plays, both three- and one-act; operettas, and Big Twelve participation. In addition students competing for this honor must have a high scholastic record for the entire four years; it must be in the upper third of the class.

The most suitable time to reward the efforts of these performers is at the annual D.H.S. Players' spring picnic, where they are honored by the presentation of their pins. A formal initiation is held, with alumni assisting.

BOOSTER CLUB OFFICERS

Top row—Mr. Donald Schoolcraft, Hilda Livengood, Miss Esther Cowan, Bill Richner.*

One of Danville High School's most active organizations is the Booster Club. During the past athletic season the Boosters have been largely responsible for spreading pep and enthusiasm throughout the community.

This club with its loyal rooters and cheer leaders, Bill Funk, Bob Freeland, and Tom Chittenden present fine examples of the club's characteristics, pep and loyalty.

Under the capable guidance of Mr. Schoolcraft and Miss Cowan, this fast-moving club has had a large enthusiastic group at all out-of-town games and has conducted snake-dances, skating and dancing parties. Its ideal is to display good sportsmanship, win or lose.

The organized system of Student Library Assistants has been one of the special features of our High School Library since its beginning in 1926.

From English 5 classes students are chosen who enjoy library work and who possess adaptability and scholarship. Under the guidance of the school librarian, Miss French, these assistants study the library manual and the working of library science problems. In their second semester the senior assistants introduce them to the duties of room routine, after which they are able to take a library period of their own.

The Library Student Committee consists of persons who act as a bridge between the library and the various departments of the school. Each committeeman represents his department with special work done by himself, his classes, and teachers. The bulletin board is used to a great advantage and the members work toward originality, beauty and attractiveness.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Second row—James Llewellyn, Jean Stewart, Ellen Mahle, Betty Tracy, Beth Utterback, Jack Childress

Third row—Veneta Gibbs, Loretta Rothenberger, Mary McCann, Marjorie Hill, Eleanor Yeomans, Milbra Osborne

From the two major journalistic departments of D.H.S., namely the Maroon and White and Medley staffs, members are chosen annually for this honorary society.

Candidates, scholastically, must rank among the upper third of their class and excel in ability, attitude, dependability and service.

Mr. Faulk and Mr. Bates, advisers of the Maroon and White and Medley staffs, respectively, choose the members from the Junior, Senior and Post-Graduate classes.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

In order that the members and advisers might know and learn more of the happenings of the day in each of the foreign countries represented in the International Club, delegates from each department discussed current events concerning their country. This year the chairmen, selected from each department, took charge of their part of the programs at each meeting.

In honor of Horace, the Latin section celebrated his birthday; at the December meeting foreign Christmas songs and customs were presented; while at the Valentine party a representative from each department related adventurous and amusing native love stories.

The club has endeavored to better acquaint the various language departments with each other as well as to portray the life and customs of the countries represented by the four languages, Latin, Spanish, French and German.

Scholarship, service, leadership and good character are requisites for membership in the National Honor Society. To become a member of this society is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon any student of Danville High School.

Each spring a committee composed of Miss Sandeson, Mr. Duffin, Miss Payne and Mr. Schoolcraft selects new members for this organization. All Juniors and Seniors with grades throughout their high school career in the upper fourth of their classes are eligible. Intellect alone is not enough to meet the society's requirements.

The first quality of service is determined by the cheerfulness and willingness to help others. Leadership concerns the competency of a person holding major office, in addition to carrying out new ideas.

A spring breakfast is held as an occasion for the reunion of old members and in recognition of those who have just attained membership.

The musicians in D.H.S. commonly referred to as the Band are technically the Crescendo Club. They meet the first hour each day with their instructor and director, Mr. Cooper, at which time they practice military, popular and "pep" songs, later presented during pep programs. In the past this club was open only to boys; now girls are cordially invited to join the organization. The Band presents a valuable opportunity for those who desire to improve their musical ability and rewards its most deserving members with the symbolic "D".

MR. FAULK
Adviser

It is the task of the Maroon and White Staff to relate the various activities of the school. During the past year Louis Brant was the editor of the paper, assisted by Lethamae Farmer, both under the supervision of Mr. Faulk, adviser for the staff. Bill Houpt and Allan Thornton were Business Manager and assistant, respectively.

The work of the staff is divided into well-defined sections. Besides the regular news stories and editorials are the popular feature columns as well as the indispensable jokes. The boys' athletic teams offered plentiful material for stories and the girls, too, contributed their share in the sports section. Each week's work is concluded by the making of a dummy in which the stories are properly arranged and appropriate headlines chosen.

The Maroon and White is a weekly publication distributed in the roll call rooms each Monday. Copies are sent to other schools in exchange for their papers.

The 1936 Medley is an album of school activities, compiled by a staff of Seniors under faculty supervision. "A picture of every student in the school" was the aim of the staff. The task of editing the book fell to Allan Thornton, who was assisted by Mayer Singerman. The circulation work was handled by Paul Zimmerman and his assistant, Bill Richner; while Fred Tracy and his co-workers, Frank Senger and Hal Ercanbrack, were responsible for the advertising section in the Medley.

The feature committee, headed by Hilda Mae Livengood, worked diligently to portray the social life and various activities of the school and arrange the pictures in a modernistic fashion.

The organization committee chairman, Judith Ann Collings, and her fellow-workers tried to the best of their ability to put a new light on the clubs and organizations of the school.

Esther Lumbrick, chairman of the Girls' Athletic committee, and her helpers presented the activities of the G.A.A. Pictures of the girl athletes in action, added loveliness to the Medley.

The football and basketball season of '35 and '36 were the greatest in D.H.S. history; thus Wilbern Keefe and his Boys' Athletic committee have a section that will long be remembered.

CUB REPORTERS

The high standard of the school paper is due largely to the training of students before they are admitted to the main staff.

This is under the supervision of Mr. Faulk, who instructs the cub reporters to keep their eyes open for a story that a regular reporter has missed. The story must be handed in and may be published.

After a year has elapsed Mr. Faulk selects from this group next year's MAROON & WHITE staff.

HOME ROOM AGENTS

A student from each roll call is appointed as a special agent for the MAROON and WHITE and subscription campaigns for the school paper and the MEDLEY are supervised by this group. In addition to passing out the school paper each Monday morning the home room agents read the announcements for the week and comment on important events.

Recognition should be given to these people who assist in introducing the MAROON and WHITE and the MEDLEY to the student body.

The club meets on the first Tuesday of each month to discuss the problems confronting the student body. This organization consists of the presidents of every club in the school and delegates elected from the separate classes.

The officers consist of president, vice-president, and secretary, capably filled by Allan Thornton, Mary Margaret Bills, and Bob Williams, respectively. Mr. Duffin is the adviser to this group.

NED V. WHITESELL

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Mr. Whitesell, in his fifth year as coach at D.H.S., built and coached the best of football teams. He has one of the finest coaching records in Illinois, and through his expert guidance of the '35 football team attained a perfect-season record.

He is a man of high ideals and strong ambitions, and knows how to instill these same qualities into his teams.

As assistant coach, Mr. Ed Firebaugh has been a real success. He has co-operated in every way with Mr. Whitesell to produce the best possible teams. His thorough teaching, practical knowledge, and pleasing personality have made him a welcome addition to the athletic department.

CONFERENCE

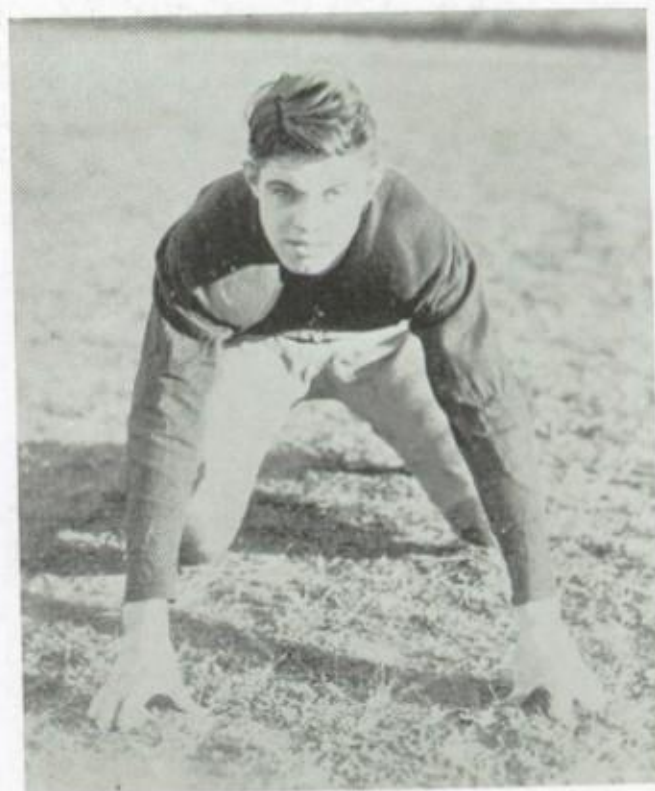

Sept. 11th the first call for football aspirants was issued.

The first week of workouts was the hardest of any of the season, and after it closed, Coach Whitesell found a comparatively young and inexperienced team with which to work.

Nine lettermen reported, among them Captain Keefe, "Rusty" Owens, Dick Jones, Cliff Shields, Gene Foertsch, Carl Spiering, Don Engel, Bill Swisher, and John Bullington. These men, along

The first play of the game brought an injury to Captain Keefe which was destined to keep him out the remainder of the season.

Danville journeyed there for that game, together with hundreds of fans, to put on an exhibition of one of the most bitterly fought games ever played. The Maroons cannot be given too much credit for coming from a tie into the win column: 12-6.

The badly battered squad continued its preparations the next week for Urbana, an old foe. They gave the crowds real thrills when they trailed at the half 2-0. But with a brilliant comeback, they put the game in the bag with a second half collection of 20 points. The final score was 20-9.

It was a memorable game; one that made the Maroons feel proud of themselves as a team who really fought for that championship. It was the result of five years of intensive work by Coach Whitesell; the result was the finest football team Danville ever has had.

The Maroons' eyes now turned to a new foe, Thornton, a school famous for its basketball teams. Danville opened the game with a series of powerful drives, and scored easily in the early part of the contest.

JOHN BULLINGTON

The outcome was never doubtful and the Maroons finally finished with a ringing victory of 31-6.

Thus did the Maroons face the last opponent of the year. Marshall, by now an ancient rival, brought down one of the strongest teams in years.

The Silver Streaks are a team with one of the most enviable records in the state of Illinois. They flashed through a bitterly fought season with only one defeat.

Booed, discouraged, everyone against them but their own fans, they fought to the position of the most talked of team in the state. They constantly came from behind and literally pushed themselves into the win column.

They were lauded, and justly so, by Coach Zuppke of the U. of I., and many other coaches, for their fighting spirit and will to win.

DICK JONES

Mr. Whitesell has proved his amazing leadership in basketball as well as football. Never before has a coach imbued his teams with such spirit and determination. This quality, coupled with a wide knowledge of the game and a sincere understanding of each boy and his problems, proves him to be the greatest coach ever to enter the portals of Danville High School.

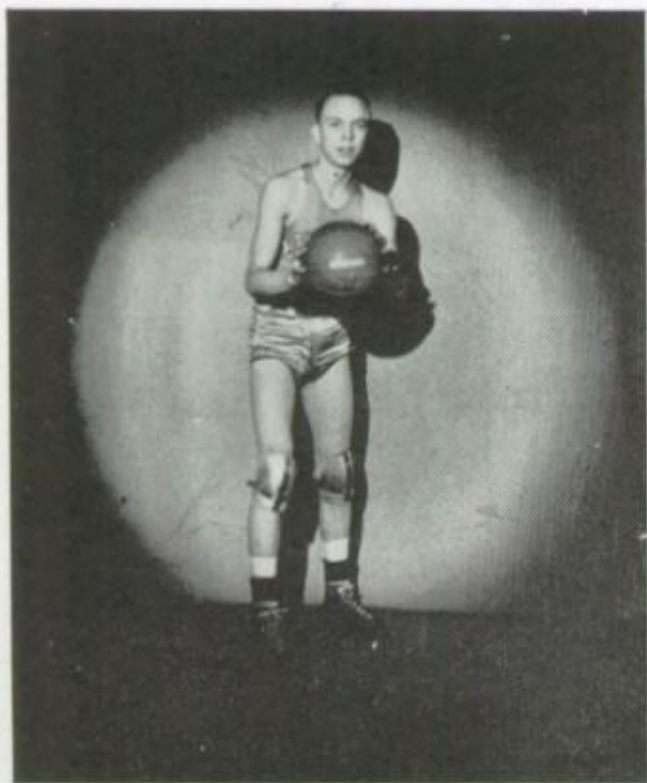

COACH WHITESELL

The Maroon basketeters, later christened the Silver Streaks, opened a historic season against Chrisman. The starting line-up for that game included Ed Telling, Joe Alexander, Jack Owens, Gene Tuggle, and Don Irwin. With these men they trounced Chrisman soundly, 62-19.

Later, Capt. Dick Jones, "Rusty" Owens, and "Moon" Williams took the places of Telling, Irwin, and Alexander.

With the resulting combination, the Streaks flashed through their schedule, winning game after game; taking in their stride Kankakee, Streator, Urbana, Champaign, Mattoon, and others.

Jack Owens and Capt. Jones on the sick list, Payne and Telling came through with brilliant substitution; the game was won by a margin of 26-17.

The Streaks then took Urbana and Catlin for the second sectional championship in as many years.

In spite of the impressive record of Danville, they were never the favorites in the following week's state finals. They seemed to always draw the toughest teams in the state.

Their first opponent was Centralia, a tall, rangy team that was highly rated. The Silver Streaks barely nosed them out of an overtime, 28-26. Capt. Jones saved the day with two breathless foul shots in the extra period.

The next afternoon they faced an even stronger team in Moline. The game was much like that of the previous day, only much faster. Racing through a nip and tuck game, the Silver Streaks forced it into an overtime; and again won the day by virtue of Tuggle's field goal in the overtime period.

By now, the Silver Streaks had the whole-hearted support of most of the coaches and none of the fans.

JOE ALEXANDER

They were fighting against great odds, but the next afternoon, they met Mt. Pulaski and defeated them in a game that was not as close as the score might indicate: 36-33.

The stage was then set for the championship game to be played that night. Danville was to meet Decatur for the feature of the evening. The game was a hard one, both teams playing their best. However, the trying early-tournament games had exhausted the Streaks and the gun went off with them trailing, 26-22.

In spite of their defeat, the Silver Streaks were given a huge welcome. Amid booming aerial bombs and a wildly cheering crowd, they were escorted to the public square and presented the key to the city by Mayor Meyer. They were feted many times during the next few weeks, and deserved every one of them.

The Silver Streaks were undoubtedly the greatest basketball team ever to come from D.H.S., and like their football brothers, should be spared no praise or commendation.

MISS BONSTEIN, Athletic Adviser

Besides having a splendid influence over her students as a coach and teacher, Miss Ann Bonstein wins their regard by her willingness to hear and cope with their problems.

To the G.A.A. members she is indispensable. Through her efforts the biennial May Fete, "Olympiad", resulted in one of the most successful productions of the school year.

MISS JANET BOCK

MISS BOCK, Assistant Adviser

Ably assisting Miss Bonstein is Miss Janet Bock, co-adviser of Girls' Athletics. Her coaching, fairness, and encouragement are influential factors in the growing popularity of girls' athletics. During her three years as a teacher in Danville High School Miss Bock has attained the respect and esteem of all who come under her influence.

June, the members of G.A.A. enjoy an exciting program filled with many sports and social functions.

The annual spring breakfast brings the good times of the school year to a close. At this last gathering, emblems are awarded to all girls who have fulfilled the necessary requirements.

It is the aim of every member to live up to the ideals of the G.A.A.: "To promote an interest in athletics and out-of-doors, to live so that I may be healthy and strong, and to make good sportsmanship a constant factor in my conduct."

G. A. A. GROUP

The membership of the Girls' Athletic Association has grown from twenty-five, at the time of its organization in 1926, to 125 at the present. As the number of girls has increased so also has the number of activities increased.

From the first week of school in September until the last week of school in

One of the first things a girl thinks of after she has become a member of the G.A.A. is to start work on her awards. For all of these, she must keep training rules for eight consecutive weeks, pass required tests, take gym and swimming, and participate in after-school sports. After she has completed enough of these to get 600 points, she receives numerals for the year in which she expects to graduate.

To receive the "D", a higher award, a girl must secure 1200 points, while 1600 points are needed to receive the "I". For the state award, the highest one given, a G.A.A. member must get 2000 points.

It is quite an honor to receive any of the awards, and they can only be obtained through persistent and earnest efforts.

MARY McCANN
Good Sportsmanship Cup Winner

The highest honor which any G.A.A. member may hope to attain is to win the Good Sportsmanship Cup. This reward can be given only to Seniors. It implies good sportsmanship, a high scholastic standing and an active participation in sports.

In appreciation of one whose ability to smile never left her, and whose personality was backed by her cheerfulness and sincerity, this cup was awarded to Mary McCann in 1935. More than a cheerful, friendly person, Mary was a leader in activities of many kinds. She was also president of the G.A.A. during her Senior year. Her record was one that would be hard to excel.

An award to which underclassmen, participating in G.A.A. activities, look forward with great anticipation is that of being a representative to a summer camp. The delegates this year were Esther Lumbrick, Mary Elam, Dorothy Travis, and Barbara Morgan.

Center: Jane Osborn, President.

Fourth row—M. Wilson, M. Wilson, Miss Bonstein, E. Kinningham.
Third row—R. Hedgepeth, M. Elam, H. Roberts, H. Cummings.
Second row—B. Morgan, M. Barton, R. Latshaw, J. Frankeberger.
Front row—B. Bolles, Captain L. Hardenbrook, P. Wilkinson, J. Osborn.

JUNIOR SOCCER TEAM

The brisk days of early fall called out over one hundred G.A.A. members for the soccer teams. Intensive drill and hard practice on the fundamentals were started early in September.

A "round robin" tournament was held near the close of the season, in which the Junior team, captained by Lucille Hardenbrook, was able to defeat all the other teams, proving themselves class champions. The Senior team, captained by Lois Haskins, defeated the Freshman and Sophomore teams, but lost out in the finals. The underclassmen lost in the first games, due to the lack of experience, but will be worthy contenders in the years to come.

SENIOR SOCCER TEAM

With the soccer season at an end, those girls having eight nights of practice had an opportunity for a few weeks' sport in field hockey.

Back row—D. Travis, R. Stanton, W. Toney, M. Boehm, E. Lumbrick, Miss Bonstein.

Back row—R. Latshaw, Miss Bock, B. Zander, R. Hedgepeth.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL TEAM

Back row—M. Stuebe, M. Smith, M. Jacksie, D. Griffith, N. Jones, Miss Bock, L. Pennington, J. Griffin, G. Smith, V. Reinke, D. Freeman, J. Knight, E. Wahlfeldt, A. Lemmon, D. Kirby, D. Broderick, Captain P. Huff, J. Lumbrick, L. Rouse, B. Trenary, E. Zander.
Front row—B. FitzGerald, N. White, B. Smith, J. Davies, K. Ibbotson, S. Kospetos, R. Hardenbrook, V. Miller.

While the boys were busy winning the Big Twelve Championship in basketball, the girls were also proving themselves real basketeers. Because of the large number who participated, two tournaments were held. In the first tournament, twelve teams were chosen and after several weeks of competition, the "Less-Than-Nothings" were declared winners.

Immediately following this an inter-class Round Robin tournament was held. This resulted in a tie, with the three upper classes losing but one game each. However, the Juniors were declared champions, because they had secured the most points.

ARCHERY CLUB

Back row—D. McCoy, J. Platt, B. FitzGerald, Champion L. Foulk, President A. Julian, Miss Bock.

Front row—A. Lemmon, J. Davies, H. Smith, E. McCoy, R. FitzGerald, F. Asher.

VOLLEY BALL

Back row—J. Olson, M. Boehm, B. Skinner, Miss Bock.

Front row—N. White, Captain P. Wilkinson, C. Seifert.

Archery found new impetus this year in the formation of an archery club. Anna Rose Julian was president of the club, and Miss Janet Bock was sponsor.

At the end of the season, a tournament was held. The four highest scorers were Lorene Foulk, Betty FitzGerald, Jule Platt, and Esther McCoy. On one cold afternoon, they played for the championship, which was won by Lorene Foulk.

Volley ball enthusiasts turned out this year for an interesting and successful tournament. At the beginning of the season, fundamentals of the game were taught by Miss Janet Bock.

About a week before the tournament the following captains were chosen: Mary Rita Orr, "Socketeers"; Phyllis Wilkinson, "Philbillies"; Mary Elam, "Spikers", and Elizabeth Jay, "Vicious Volleyers". In the final game "Philbillies" emerged the champions.

TENNIS TEAM

Back row—B. West, Captain E. Lumbrick, O. Keyes, M. Elam.

Front row—J. Frankeberger, H. Cummings, E. Jay.

Although this is only the second year for tennis as an organized sport in D.H.S., it has progressed very rapidly.

Last Spring an inter-class tournament was held, from which a tennis team was picked to compete against Urbana. This team was composed of Capt. E. Lumbrick, J. Frankeberger, H. Cummings, B. West, M. Elam, O. K. Keyes, E. Jay, and Martha Collings. In the match at Urbana Danville was victorious, while the tournament at Danville resulted in a tie.

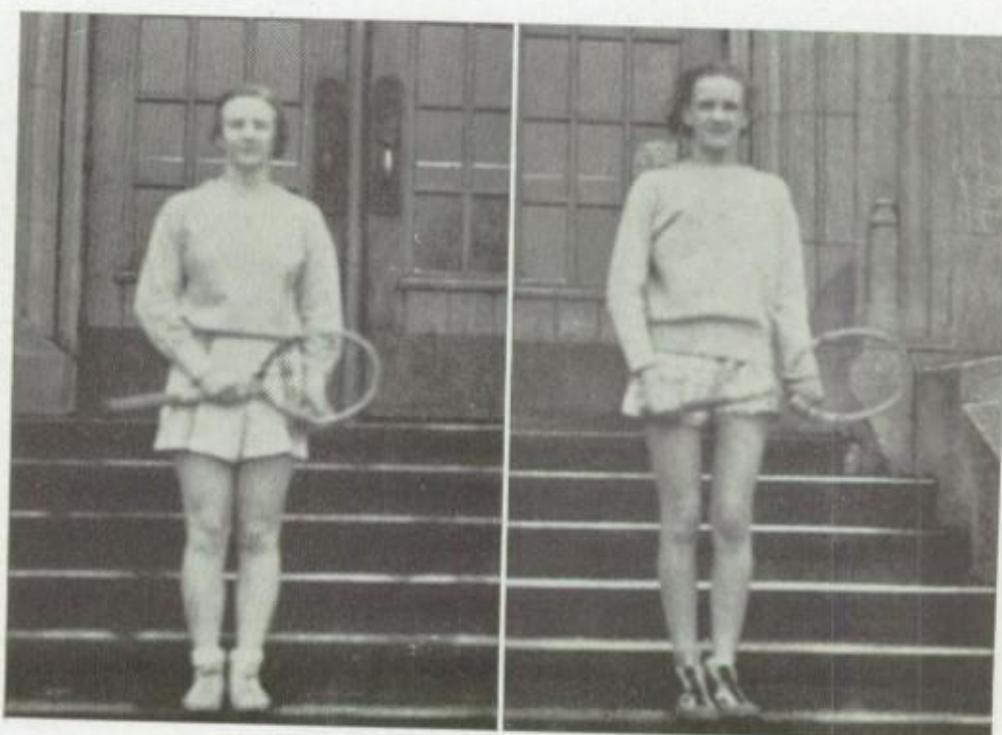

Again in the fall, an elimination tournament was held in both singles and doubles. After several weeks of competition Esther Lumbrick, in the final match, defeated Mary Elam, therefore winning the championship. In the doubles, Esther Lumbrick and Jane Osborn were able to defeat Barbara Morgan and Marjorie Barton.

Thus, after a very successful season, tennis has established itself as a very popular sport in the G.A.A.

— GYM OFFICE —

The annual Mid-Year Party of G.A.A. was given this year as a tea for the mothers of all members. For the newly initiated girls it meant formal initiation time.

Clever "get-acquainted" games started the afternoon for both mothers and daughters. A sports review presented by the girls gave the mothers an idea of the sports in which all G.A.A. members may participate. The program was closed with the formal initiation of the new members.

The girls proudly displayed the gym office, which they had recently redecorated as a Christmas gift to the advisers.

MID-YEAR PARTY

SPRING BREAKFAST

BUDDY BREAKFAST

The annual spring breakfast was held this year on Osborn's farm, June 4, 1935. Breakfast was prepared and cooked over an outdoor fire, after which initiation was held for sixteen new members.

Following the initiation, all of the members went on a treasure hunt. The treasure was a chest containing the awards, which were presented at that time. Along with the presentation of awards, camp delegates were announced and new officers of the coming year were installed.

The G.A.A. girls started their season of activities for the year by having a Buddy Breakfast September 21, 1935, at the cove on Lake Vermilion. Each member brought, as her guest, a new girl in school.

The outing was initiated by a plunge in the lake. After their swim the girls enjoyed a tempting breakfast prepared by Jane Osborn and her committee. Following breakfast, the delegates to the G.A.A. camp told of their experiences of the previous summer. A few words of greeting were then given by Miss Bonstein and Miss Bock.

SWIMMING TEAM

Back row—B. Griffith, N. Jones, N. J. Wade, L. Hardenbrook, P. Griffith, J. Berger, E. Lumbrick, Miss Bonstein.
Front row—J. Lumbrick, A. Deeken, A. Hart, R. Hedgepeth, A. Yarunisky, R. Hardenbrook.

RED CROSS LIFE SAVERS

Back row—D. J. Wilson, E. Jay, B. Platt, E. Kinningham, E. Lumbrick, M. J. Acton, J. Berger, Miss Bock.
Middle row—Miss Bonstein, D. Frame, L. Hardenbrook, P. Griffith, R. Hardenbrook, N. J. Wade.
Front row—N. Jones, D. Murray, V. Cooper, B. Keinzle, F. Sutton, A. Isaacson.

As years go by the students of D.H.S. grow increasingly aware of the advantage of having a swimming pool in their school. This fact is evidenced by the large number of girls in all classes.

The girls take the elementary, intermediate and advanced courses and gradually develop from beginners to proficient swimmers in all strokes and dives. The advanced swimmer has a possibility of becoming a Red Cross Life Saver and also through the advanced courses she has an opportunity to perfect her strokes and build up speed and endurance.

MARSHALL PLAY DAY REPRESENTATIVES

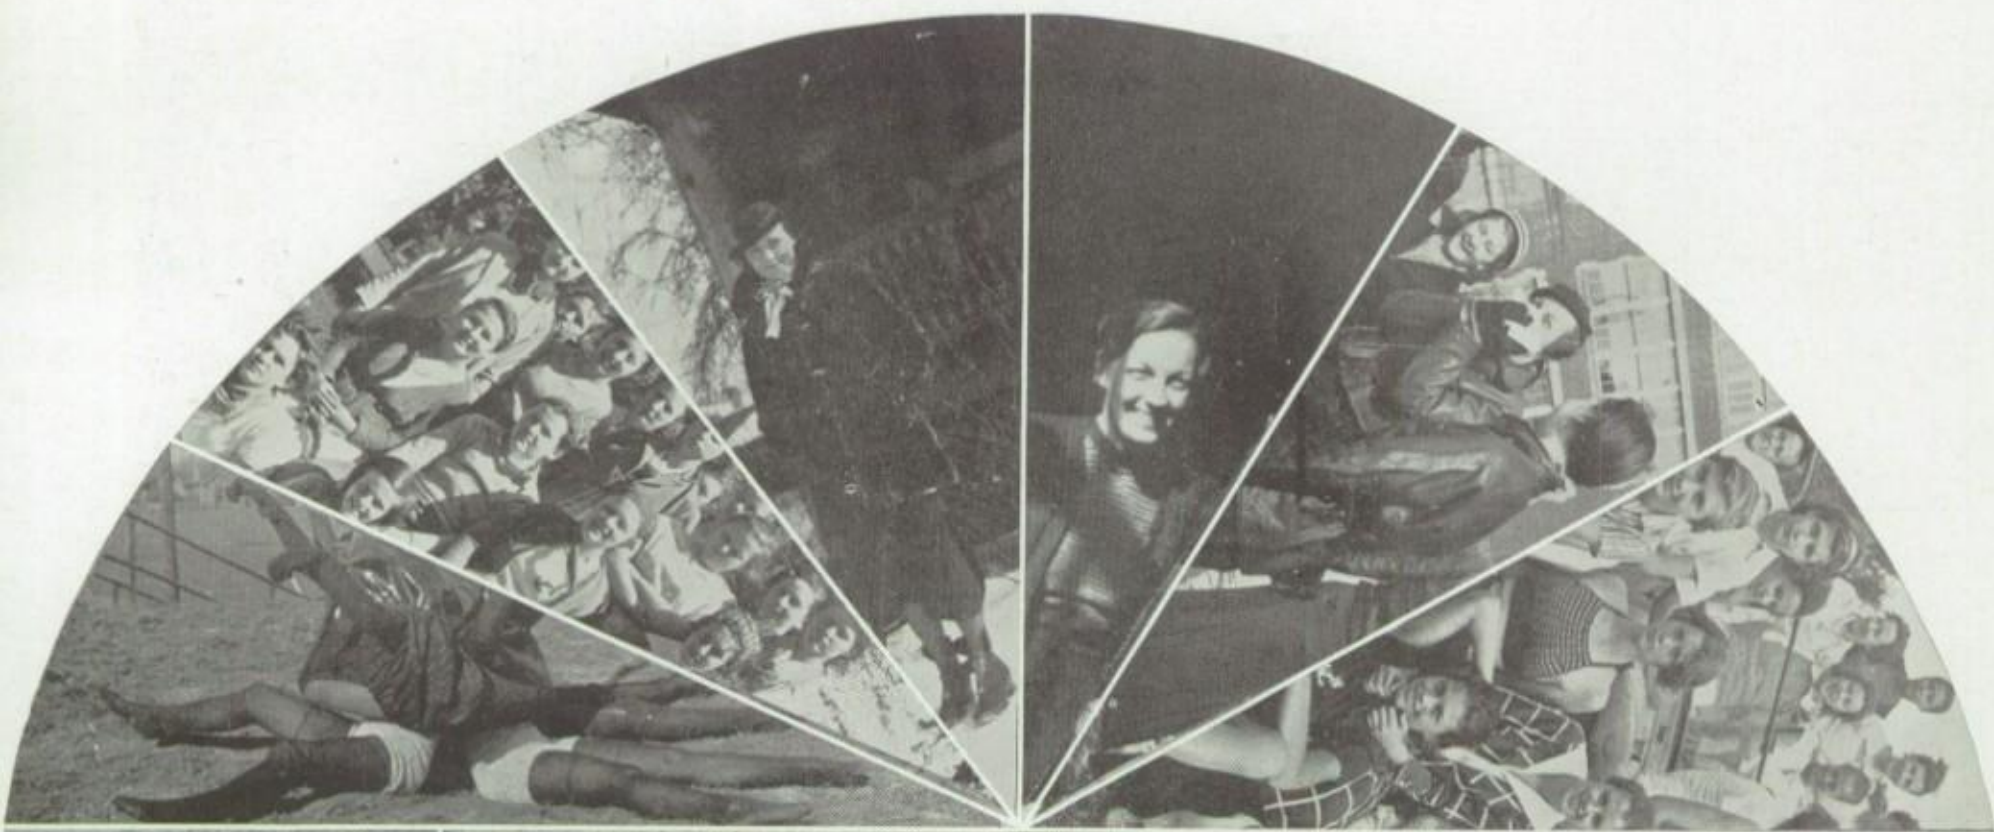

Back row—E. Lumbrick, D. Travis, L. Hardenbrook, Miss Bonstein.
Front row—L. Foulk, N. J. Wade, J. Berger, P. Griffith.

CHARLESTON PLAY DAY REPRESENTATIVES

M. Elam, J. Osborn, M. Barton, E. Jay, B. Morgan, Miss Bock.

The music teacher had patiently explained to the little boy the meaning of "rest" in music. The child repeated it after her, and seemed to know it. He began to play his piece but disregarded the rest.

"Why didn't you stop for the rest?"

"Oh, I'm not tired yet."

English Prof.: "What is a metaphor?"
Student: "To keep cows in."

Sandy joined a golf club and was told by the professional that if his name was on his golf-balls and they were lost, they would be returned to him when found.

"Good," said the Scot, "put my name on this ball."

The pro did so.

"Would you also put M.D. after it?" said the new member. "I'm a doctor." The pro obeyed.

"There's just one more thing," went on the Scot. "Can ye squeeze 'Hours 10 to 3' on as well?"

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

A minister, while passing a group of convicts at work on the country roads, became very much depressed at the sight.

"My good men," he said, "we should strive to mend our ways."

"Well, wot do you think we're doing," asked No. 3289, "digging fishworms?"

DRY CLEANING

Formatrol, this patented device, makes accurate formula control possible—allowing the completion of the cleansing operation within one machine. It scientifically and automatically regulates the different lengths of time necessary for the careful cleansing of different fabrics, thus insuring complete safety to colors and materials. PROSPERIZE cleansing is done at low temperature to avoid shrinking.

Four-year-old Patsy was enjoying her first Thanksgiving dinner. After struggling vainly for several minutes to remove the skin from the drumstick, she handed it to her father and said, "Here, Daddy, please take the underwear off my turkey leg."

His sister called him "Willie,"
His mother called him "Will";
But when he went to college,
To dad 'twas "Bill, Bill, Bill."

We are the originators of "Flesh Tone", which is the greatest development in Photography in recent years.

Compare it with ordinary Photography, and see the vast difference.

The Bowman Studio has been in operation in Danville for the past 26 years, and has always stood for the best in this art.

If Bowman's make your photographs, you will have no regrets, as we use only the best of materials, and the most skillful workmanship, and we can truthfully say that we have no complaints.

Little Betty had just been fitted with her first pair of glasses. On the way home, in a crowded street car, her mother noticed she was staring at her through the new spectacles in a bewildered manner. "What is it, dear?" asked her mother.

"Oh, Mother," Betty burst out in a high-pitched tone, "I never knew before what a lot of wrinkles you have!"

Nervous Lady—"Careful, driver, not so fast—this is my first ride in a taxi."
Taxi Driver—"Mine, too."

A Scotchman stood on a bridge looking at the water. A canoeist coming down the river suddenly overturned. He went down, came up gasping, went down again. When he came up again the Scot shouted, "Say, Mon, if you don't come up next time can I have the boat?"

"CONSULT YOUR PHYSICIAN FIRST"

A little man was standing in the aisle of a street car hanging to a strap. He watched anxiously for seats but no one got off.

"Bmlth Street!" called the conductor. Nobody got off.

Next came "Kabltthrr."

Finally the little man lost patience. He looked at the people around him and asked:

"Say, ain't any of youse people got homes?"

Co-ordination

Fine annuals, like accurate results, are brought about by the co-ordination of capable management and trained effort. These qualities within our organization account largely for the enviable record of G. R. Grubb & Co. in the field of annual design and engraving.

Dear Agnes:

It sure has been swell knowing you and I hope that you never forget me. Tell Bob that I am sorry that I almost always ruin his face but I forget.

I hope hope you dont forget us and the silly things that we have done. Shush we have had fun and I hope we still do.

I want you, Jane, and Carolyn to come up this summer and play dolls, cowboy and Indian or something. How about it?
